8 Heritage Sites — Walking Order

1. Cheong Fatt Tze Mansion
   The iconic Blue Mansion — 19th-century indigo-blue Hakka heritage house. Guided tours daily.
2. Pinang Peranakan Mansion
   Six rooms of Peranakan antiques, opium beds, and Nyonya ceramics.
3. Penang Museum
   Colonial-era building tracing Penang's history from trading port to UNESCO city.
4. St George's Church
   Oldest Anglican church in Southeast Asia (1818). Neo-classical colonial architecture.
5. Kapitan Keling Mosque
   The largest mosque in Penang — Mughal-style with Indian Muslim heritage.
6. Khoo Kongsi Clan House
   The most elaborate clan house in Penang — ornate carvings, dragon sculptures, mini opera stage.
7. Clan Jetties
   Six waterfront Chinese clan villages on stilts — Chew Jetty is the most photographed.
8. Fort Cornwallis
   British colonial star-shaped fort (1786) — where Francis Light first landed. Free entry.

Walking Tips

- Start early (7–9am) — cooler and fewer crowds. Full walk takes 2.5–3 hours.
- Wear comfortable shoes — George Town streets are cobblestone.
- Most clan houses open 9am–5pm. Cheong Fatt Tze tours at 11am and 3:30pm.
- Trishaw rides available near Fort Cornwallis (RM 30–50 for 30 mins).
